SCOTTISH STYLE'S BIG NIGHT

STARS AND STYLE:

Paolo Nutini and girlfriend Teri Brogan saw Terri win

TERRIFIC

Stunning schoolgirl is New Face winner

SCHOOLGIRL beauty Terri McGlone was last night named Scotland's New Face 2010 at the Scottish Fashion Awards in Glasgow.

The competition's four finalists joined a host of celebrities including chart stars Paolo Nutini, Diana Vickers and Gabriella Cilmi, as well as Ultime tycoon Michelle Mone, at the city's Science Centre. But the night belonged to fifth-year pupil Terri, from Dunfermline, Fife.

She beat fellow finalists Caron Kinnaird, Jamie-Lee Poppe and Fern Calderwood.

The 16-year-old won a campaign with BooHoo.com, a Smart Car for a year and the chance of a modelling contract.

She said: "I never thought I would even make the top 20. I am so excited."

FINALISTS: Caron Kinnaird, Terri, Jamie-Lee Poppe and Fern Calderwood
